

SCHWANDA ROUNTREE, DC-BASED ART COLLECTOR AND CONSULTANT

*Dupont Circle
FRESHFARM Market*
“I love my Sundays
in DC because of the farmers market. You can find fresh fruits and veggies and the best breads and cheeses!”

SAKINA ISKENDER,
OWNER, TAKE 5
BOUTIQUE

Gravelly Point Park
The Arlington park, near the runway of Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport, attracts aviation fans. “You can sit—or, better yet, lie on your back—and watch airplanes depart
and arrive close up.
It’s amazing.”

JAVIER LOUREIRO, CHIEF CONCIERGE,
FOUR SEASONS HOTEL
WASHINGTON DC

Hillwood Estate, Museum & Gardens
“I especially like Hillwood in the fall. The vibrant fall colors in the gardens—
yellows and reds, and mums of all sorts—are a last fling before the cold of winter sets in. It just seems like there are fewer visitors, so you have the gardens to yourself.”

FANTASTIC FALL
Clockwise from top left: Visitors
select fresh fruits at the Dupont Circle
FRESHFARM Market;
Hillwood is like a secret
garden in autumn;
watching planes land
from Gravelly Point Park offers a unique DC experience.

GRAVELLY POINT PARK PHOTO BY L. TOSHIO KISHIYAMA

FrontDesk / September-October 2013